

Desalegne Beyene Jembere

Public Health Professional | Healthcare Leadership | MSc in Project Management

Kirkos Subcity, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

+251 909 638 739 | desalegnebeyene360@gmail.com

Professional Profile

Public health professional with a career spanning hospital care, university health services, healthcare workforce training, and teaching. Leadership experience includes supervising teams of 10–100 people, serving as a hospital matron and ward head nurse, and coordinating student health services. Holds an MSc in Project Management (2025) and a BSc in Public Health, with additional training in HIV/ART, TB/HIV, immunization, and maternal and neonatal care. Seeking to contribute this experience to health-sector NGO programmes in Ethiopia.

Core Competencies

Healthcare team leadership • Public health service coordination • Clinical and nursing services • Healthcare professional training • Maternal and child health • HIV/ART services • Academic grounding in project management

Professional Experience

Chief Expert, Public Health Professional

Debre Tabor University | Approximately 2021–present G.C.

- Serve in a senior public health professional role following earlier university health service coordination positions.

Student Health Service Coordination Roles

Debre Tabor University | From 01/10/2004 E.C.; preceding the current role

- Students' Health Service Coordinator: 01/10/2004–30/10/2009 E.C.
- Student Medical Clinic and Health Services Coordinator: from 01/11/2009 E.C.; documented through 23/12/2011 E.C.
- Coordinated student health services and subsequently the student medical clinic and its services.

Health Officer and Earlier Clinical Roles

Debre Tabor Hospital / Regional Health Bureau | 01/05/1978–30/09/2004 E.C.

- Health Officer / Public Health Professional: 06/08/2001–30/09/2004 E.C.
- Clinical Nurse: 01/11/1993–05/08/2001 E.C.; Health Assistant: 01/05/1978–30/10/1993 E.C.
- Provided care across regular and emergency outpatient services, antenatal care, under-five services, ART, and medical, surgical, pediatric, and gynecology wards.
- Held ward head nurse and hospital matron responsibilities; represented staff on the hospital board.

Training and Teaching Experience

Senior Public Health Professional II — Temporary Assignment

Drug Administration and Control Authority of Ethiopia | Active on 24/11/2001 E.C.

- Trained healthcare professionals during a temporary assignment with the authority.

Instructor

KIAMID College, Bahir Dar | Approximately 2010–2011 G.C. | One year

- Taught Anatomy, Physiology, and Clinical Chemistry courses.

Education

Master of Science in Project Management

Debre Tabor University | 2025 G.C.

Bachelor of Science in Public Health

University of Gondar | 20 September 2008 G.C.

Diploma in Clinical Nursing

Gondar College of Medical Sciences | 7 July 2001 G.C.

Health Assistant Diploma

Ministry of Health, Ethiopia | 9 January 1986 G.C.

Professional Training and Certifications

- TB/HIV Training — University of Gondar and Amhara Regional Health Bureau, with I-TECH Ethiopia | 14–18 February 2011 G.C., Gondar.
- National Comprehensive HIV Care/ART Training — I-TECH Ethiopia and Amhara Regional Health Bureau | 30 November–25 December 2009 G.C., Bahir Dar.
- Immunization certificate — Ministry of Health.
- Neonatal and antenatal care certificate.
- Essential Drug Programme — Ethiopian drug authority.
- Teaching certificate — KIAMID College, Bahir Dar.

Languages and Digital Skills

Languages: Amharic; English — C1 (self-reported).

Digital skills: Good working knowledge of Microsoft Office and general computer use; basic knowledge of artificial intelligence applications in healthcare.

E.C. = Ethiopian calendar; G.C. = Gregorian calendar. Employment dates use day/month/year.